Human Rights Policy

Core labour standards and human rights in the workplace.

RIDGE CREST CLEANING will identify and implement our development targets in accordance with the universal definitions of human rights, as stated in the guidelines interpreted by the international institute for Environment and Development. This will ensure that our staff work within a civilized, dignified and sustainable workplace.

RIDGE CREST CLEANING understands the comprehensive and widely acceptable standards and recommendations of the international labour organization, a tripart agency of the united nations (workers, employers and governments). RIDGE CREST CLEANING will follow the agreed guidelines, and periodically update, and address the fundamental rights of its workers. These rights include:

- Workers right to organize and engage in collective bargaining
- Workers right to equality at work
- The abolition of child labour
- The abolition of forced labour

It is our intention to accept, support and respect all staff, and adhere to equal rights and opportunities in the workplace.
